JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

PLAINTIFF’S SUPPLEMENTAL OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES TO DEFENDANT INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS MACHINES CORP.’S SECOND SET OF INTERROGATORIES (NOS. 26-39)

Pursuant to Rules 26 and 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff VirtaMove, Corp. (“Plaintiff” or “VirtaMove”) provides its supplemental objections and responses to Defendant International Business Machines Corp.’s (“Defendant” or “IBM”) Second Set of Interrogatories as follows:

VirtaMove’s responses are based on information known and available to it at the time of these responses. VirtaMove’s investigation in this matter is ongoing. Further, because all information and documents that are possibly within the scope of the Interrogatories may have yet to be located and/or identified, the development of VirtaMove’s contentions with respect to its claims and defenses is ongoing. VirtaMove reserves the right to assert additional objections to the Interrogatories and to modify and supplement its responses pursuant to Rule 26(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

VirtaMove’s responses to these Interrogatories are not to be construed as admissions that any of the requested information exists or that any contention or assumption contained in the Interrogatories, whether implicit or explicit, is correct.

By making any responses, VirtaMove does not concede that the information given is properly discoverable or admissible, and VirtaMove reserves its right to object to the introduction of these responses into evidence for any purpose.

VirtaMove is willing and prepared to discuss definitions of vague, ambiguous, or otherwise objectionable terms, as well as the appropriate discoverable scope of each interrogatory in light of the objections contained herein.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

These General Objections are incorporated into the specific responses below.

1. VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories to the extent that they attempt to impose an obligation on VirtaMove different from or greater than that required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Local Rules of the Eastern District of Texas, the Court’s Standing Orders, any other Order entered in this action, and any agreements between the parties.

2. VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories to the extent that they request information related to patents or patent claims that have not been asserted, and thus are irrelevant, unduly burdensome, and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

3. VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories to the extent that they request the disclosure of information protected by the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, common interest privilege, mediation privilege, or any other privilege or immunity. VirtaMove hereby asserts all such applicable privileges and protections, and excludes privileged and protected information from its responses to the Interrogatories. Unless explicitly stated, any disclosure of such privileged or protected documents is inadvertent and should not be construed as a waiver of the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, protection or doctrine.

4. VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories to the extent they are neither relevant to any claim or defense in this case nor proportional to the needs of the case.

5. VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories as unduly vague and overly broad to the extent that they fail to identify the information sought with reasonable particularity, thereby requiring VirtaMove to resort to conjecture and speculation as to what information is sought.

6. VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories to the extent they seek information that VirtaMove is not permitted to disclose pursuant to confidentiality obligations, Protective Orders, or agreements with third parties. VirtaMove will not provide such information without the consent of the relevant party or a court order.

7. VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories to the extent that they seek information from an individual or entity outside of VirtaMove's control. VirtaMove cannot reasonably respond to such Interrogatories, and objects to them as unreasonable and unduly burdensome. VirtaMove further objects to the extent these Interrogatories would require it to produce or disclose information that is already in Defendant's possession, that is publicly available, or that is as readily identifiable and accessible to Defendant as to VirtaMove.

8. VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories to the extent that they are unreasonably cumulative or duplicative, or obtainable from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, or less expensive.

9. VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories to the extent that they are speculative, lack foundation, or improperly assume the existence of hypothetical facts that are incorrect or unknown to VirtaMove.

10. VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories to the extent that they assume facts not in evidence.

11. VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories to the extent that they call for legal conclusions and/or the rendering of expert opinions.

12. To the extent these Interrogatories seek discovery of information within the scope of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(4), VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories as premature and improper discovery of expert opinion.

13. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(2)(B), VirtaMove states that it will not search sources of electronically stored information that are not reasonably accessible regardless of whether those sources may contain electronically stored information responsive to these Interrogatories. However, VirtaMove reserves the right to supplement its responses in the event that other potentially responsive information becomes known. To the extent these Interrogatories seek different data or data in configurations different from those for which such databases are configured, VirtaMove will not search or attempt to produce information from such databases because it believes they are “not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost” as contemplated by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(2)(B).

14. VirtaMove objects to the Interrogatories to the extent they seek “all” information about a topic; such Interrogatories are overly broad, unduly burdensome, and unlikely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

RESTRICTED – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY

15. VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories to the extent that they seek information or documents already in the possession of or are more readily available to Defendant, in the public domain, or equally available to Defendant as they are to VirtaMove.

16. VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories to the extent that they seek information not within VirtaMove’s possession, custody, or control.

17. VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories to the extent that they seek information that is cumulative of information sought by other discovery requests or duplicative of disclosures already provided by VirtaMove.

18. VirtaMove objects to these Interrogatories to the extent they contain multiple subparts asserted as individual interrogatories. Each subpart counts towards the limit on Interrogatories that Defendant is permitted to propound.

19. By responding to Defendant’s Interrogatories, VirtaMove does not waive any objection that may be applicable to: (a) the use, for any purpose, by VirtaMove of any information produced; (b) the admissibility, relevance, or materiality of any such information to any issue in this case; or (c) the competency or authenticity of any such information.

20. VirtaMove objects to Defendant’s definitions of “Plaintiff,” “VirtaMove,” “You,” and “Your” as vague, ambiguous, overbroad, unduly burdensome, and/or seeking documents that are not proportional to the needs of the case because of its inclusion of “any officers, directors, partners, associates, employees, staff members, agents, representatives, divisions, predecessor companies (including at least Trigence Corp. and AppZero Software Corp.), parent or subsidiary corporations, affiliated corporations, or any other related entities of VirtaMove” may include people and entities outside of VirtaMove’s control. In responding to these Interrogatories, VirtaMove understands these terms to refer to the plaintiff in this action, VirtaMove, Corp.

RESTRICTED – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY

21. VirtaMove objects to the definitions of the term “Person” because it makes each Interrogatory that references a person vague, ambiguous, overbroad, and unduly burdensome. VirtaMove will interpret this term using its common and ordinary meaning.

22. VirtaMove objects to the definition of the term “Documents” as overbroad and unduly burdensome. Accordingly, VirtaMove will interpret this term consistent with its obligations pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Local Rules of this District and any applicable Court orders.

23. VirtaMove objects to the definition of the term “and” as overbroad and unduly burdensome. VirtaMove will interpret this term using its common and ordinary meaning.

24. VirtaMove objects to the definition of the term “or” as overbroad and unduly burdensome. VirtaMove will interpret this term using its common and ordinary meaning.

25. VirtaMove objects to Defendant’s Instructions as overbroad, unduly burdensome and calling for a legal conclusion. VirtaMove will provide responses and produce documents, subject to its objections consistent with applicable statutes, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the rules of this District and any court orders.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 27:

Incorporating the General Objections, above, VirtaMove further objects to this Interrogatory to the extent it calls for information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege or protection. VirtaMove further objects to this Interrogatory to the extent that it seeks information that is equally accessible to Defendant from public sources or from third parties. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, VirtaMove responds as follows: VirtaMove incorporates infringement contentions, its responses to IBM’s Interrogatory Nos. 1, 2, 3, 5, 6 and Common Interrogatory No. 8, and all supplements thereto in full.

Discovery is ongoing and VirtaMove reserves the right to amend or supplement its response as the case proceeds.

VirtaMove further objects to this Interrogatory to the extent that it seeks information that is equally accessible to Defendant from public sources or from third parties. VirtaMove further objects to this Interrogatory to the extent it is a premature contention interrogatory that purports to require VirtaMove to identify all facts or evidence with respect to a particular topic or issue in advance of the deadline set forth in the Docket Control Order. VirtaMove further objects to this Interrogatory to the extent that it seeks information that is outside of VirtaMove’s possession, custody, and control. VirtaMove further objects to this Interrogatory as calling for legal conclusions and expert opinions. VirtaMove further objects to this Interrogatory as vague, ambiguous, and unduly burdensome as to the term and/or phrase “any products and/or services relating to containerization and/or container orchestration” which is undefined and subject to multiple interpretations. This phrase also presumably implicates the entire universe of products and/or services related to containerization, which VirtaMove lacks sufficient knowledge about. VirtaMove further objects to this Interrogatory as seeking information or documents that are not in VirtaMove’s possession, custody, or control. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, VirtaMove
